

3D UWaterloo View and its processing model

This 3D detailed building rooftop view is created with ArcGIS software. The local variables are lidar points covering campus and building feature classes. Iterators allows every building to be processed efficiently. Although the automation has been maximized, the manual digitization can not be avoided.

Created by Yishi Zhao